

NewsSportBusinessCommentLifeClassifiedsCareersServices

Search

NationalWorldSocial & PersonalEducationCartoonsEnvironmentGozoQuotes Of The WeekReligionUniversityVideosEmailPrint

THE SUNDAY TIMES

Sunday, June 24, 2012

Drawing competition on 'Colourful rights'

Fondazione Malagutti onlus is organising the 11th edition of an international drawing competition entitled 'Colourful Rights' for children aged three to 14 aimed at promoting the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child.

Children may take part individually or as a group and they are free to choose any theme, technique or format they wish.

The top prize of the competition is a week-long stay for three people at a European resort.

Participants must fill a participation form including their personal data and the contact details of their parents or teacher.

The drawings must be sent by October 31 to Fondazione Malagutti onlus, Via dei Toscani, 8, 46010 Curtatone (Mn), Italy.

For further information contact Serena on e-mail info@dirittiacolori.it or Silvia on estero@dirittiacolori.it, call 0 0390 3764 9951 or visit www.dirittiacolori.it.

EmailPrint« Police call on Valletta pupilsHealth and safety student training »